Trauma, Violence, & Abuse: A Review Journal (TVA) is devoted to organizing, synthesizing, and expanding knowledge on all forms of trauma, abuse, and violence. This peer-reviewed journal is practitioner oriented and will publish only reviews of research, conceptual or theoretical articles, and law review articles. TVA is dedicated to professionals and advanced students in clinical training who work with any form of trauma, abuse, and violence. It is intended to compile knowledge that clearly affects practice, policy, and research.

Manuscripts: Interested potential authors are encouraged to contact the editor with an idea for a review manuscript. Manuscripts must conform to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th edition) and may be up to 35 typed, double-spaced pages in length including references, tables, and figures. Each manuscript should follow the format of the journal and include an abstract, brief biographical statement for each author, keywords, key points, and implications for future research. All manuscripts are peer reviewed and should be submitted with a letter indicating that the material has not been published elsewhere and is not under review at another publication. Manuscripts should be submitted electronically to http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/tva where authors will be required to set up an online account on the SAGETRACK system powered by ScholarOne. Inquiries may be made by e-mail at contej@u.washington.edu or fax at 206-543-1228.
